

The Friendship State Bank is proud to announce the Wilke S. and James W. Lemon Scholarship for the 2018 – 2019 school year. This $1,000 scholarship will be awarded to a senior who demonstrates a commitment and involvement in community service.

- Qualified applicants will possess a 2.5 or better cumulative GPA on a 4.0 scale.
- Applicants must plan on attending an accredited college, university or technical school to be considered for this scholarship.
- Applicants are expected to list all community service involvements on separate page from the essay.
- In a 250 word or less essay, applicants are to choose one community involvement activity that made the most impact on them or their community and why.

Applications with the essay attached for the scholarship must be received at by April 5, 2019.

**Any application that does not have an essay attached, will not be considered.*
